An Anglo Chinese Dictionary, published at the Daily Press Office, Hongkong. For comprehensiveness and practical service this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have of late years been compelled to coin to express the numerous objects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are nere given in extenso. Each and every word is	HE P. & O. S. N. Co.'s Steamship or students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations are given the accents being carefully marked on the best principle hitherto attained. The typography lisplays the success of an attempt to make the hinese and English type correspond in the size of body, thereby effecting a vast economy of pace, achieving a clearness not previously trained, and dispensing with those vast margins and vacant spaces which have heretofore characterized Chinese publications.	STEAM TO YOKOHAMA, VIA NAGA- SAKI AND KOBE. (Passing through the Inland Sea.) THE P. & Q. S. N. Co.'s Steamship "THIBET." will leave for the above place on SATUR. DAY, the 2nd August, at Noon. A. GOATS AT THE CAPE. The introduction of the Angora goat into the Cape Colony has been successful beyond all anticipation, but this success, it appears, has caused the ruin of the Asiatic province of Turkey from whence the animals were imported. Cape competition is fast killing the mohair trade of Augora. Ten years ago the greater part of this trade was in the hands of Christian natives of Angora, but almost the entire trade is now in the hands | Ascolon of the English. In its present state, how- Butnan over, it offers no profit, but rather entails a Cassandra loss upon all who engage in it. The Capu Changehow furnor pays no tax for his mobair, whereas China thetax on Angora mobair is six plastres per oke. And when to this tax is added the difference in the cost of farming, and in the expense of transit, the Angora exporter, when prices are regulated by Cape competi- Hankow tion, gains next to sething.
